North America's Trusted Restaurant Recruiters & Industry Experts

You need rock stars for the front and back of the house.

No one understands that better than we do.

Our Gecko recruiters and partners come from senior positions in the restaurant industry, so we know what qualities we're looking for in candidates that will fit perfectly with your operations.

And we all know that stars in your restaurant earn stars for your restaurant.

Recruiting like you've never experienced before

National network

We work as a team to ensure every one of our offices across North America finds and places only the best professionals from our nationwide database of top-tier candidates.

Exceptional recruiters

Our CPC-certified team uses a rigorous interview process in combination with an applicant tracking system to connect professionals from our national network of referrals and organizations to yield extraordinary results.

Committed candidates

The professionals we recommend are loyal to Gecko because we treat them well and provide not only the support they need to succeed, but the respect they deserve.

True partnership

We routinely go the extra mile to learn about your business, your culture, and the person who is going to help you achieve the success you desire – because finding the right candidate is the most important thing we do.

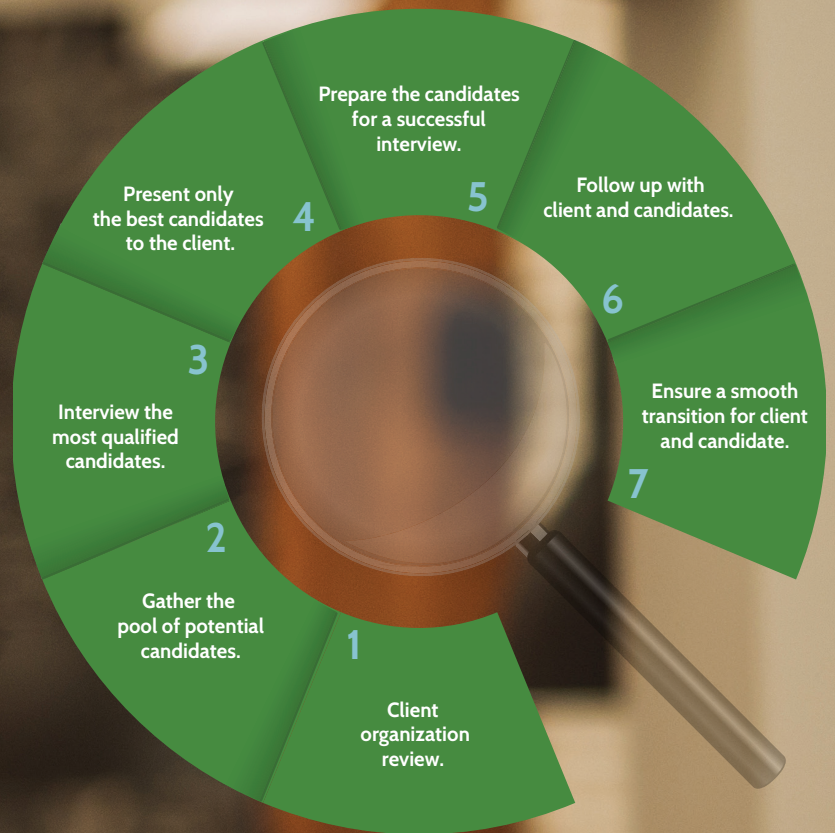

A man with a light beard and short brown hair, wearing a light blue button-down shirt, is smiling warmly at the camera. He is holding a white smartphone in his right hand. The background is a blurred interior space with warm, golden lighting, suggesting a restaurant or hotel lobby.

At Gecko Hospitality, we stand behind each new hire to ensure a productive, mutually beneficial, long-term relationship.

Our partners are 100% invested in your success, so we find the right candidates that perfectly match your needs and your culture.

We're behind you, every step of the way

Our process

We work tirelessly to find the right candidate. Our seven-step process ensures that every candidate we bring to you is properly vetted not only as the best fit for the job, but as a great addition to your team.

And we do it on your timeline, because we understand how an unfilled position can affect your bottom line.

“Gecko provided us with a number of well-qualified and experienced candidates for the General Manager position at our TopGolf Kingstowne entertainment facility. You really listened to the type of candidate and experience we were looking for and only provided us with well-qualified candidates. Your additional insights upon forwarding the resumes were also very helpful. The selected candidate’s experience and background were exactly what we needed to re-energize our Alexandria, VA location. We will definitely look to Gecko in the future for management level positions.”

“As the CFO of a restaurant group, I rely on the Gecko team’s expertise in identifying talent to quickly fill high level positions. They are highly communicative and very experienced. We have successfully hired several key leaders in the front and back of house thanks to the Gecko team. I would highly recommend them to other restaurateurs.”

“I no longer need to post ads, filter through resumes and waste time speaking with less-than-qualified individuals. I receive qualified candidates, set aside a day to interview a select few and pick who I feel is most qualified for our restaurant. Gecko makes this possible!”
